

The Daily Union Vedette.

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 7, 1865.

The Great Inaugural and Union Celebration in Salt Lake City, Saturday, March 4, 1865.

Our want of space heretofore has precluded from giving more than a passing notice of the celebration on Saturday last. As the 4th day of March 1865, was the occasion of events destined long to have an important influence in Utah affairs, we desire to give a more detailed account of the celebration which reflected so much credit on all concerned. In this view, in addition to the account already given in our columns we propose to present to our readers the initiatory steps as well as the subsequent ceremonies. In pursuance of a call in the VEDETTE on Tuesday morning, Feb. 28th, a large and enthusiastic meeting of citizens assembled at the Hall of the Y. M. Literary Association at 2 p. m. of that day. The following committee were appointed:

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.
Wm. Gilbert, Lt. Col. Milo George.
Fred. Walker, Capt. M. G. Lewis,
Sam'l Kahn, John Meeks.
COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.
Frank Gilbert, Chas. B. Greene,
Ed. Pennington.
COMMITTEE ON EXERCISES.
Capt. C. H. Hempstead, Col. O. M. Irish,
Rich'd A. Keys.

These committees, immediately set to work determined to make the ceremonies worthy of the occasion. The Committee on Finance speedily raised by subscription, several thousand dollars, ample for the expenses. The Committee on Exercises, etc., selected Chief Justice Titus as Orator, and Rev. Norman McLeod as Chaplain of the Day. The following correspondence also passed:

G. SALT LAKE CITY, U. T.,
February 28th, 1865.
J. C. LITTLE, Esq., City Marshal: Sir:—The undersigned, Chairman of Committee to erect stand for Orator of the Day, appointed at a mass meeting of citizens held this day, begs leave to request permission to erect a stand in the yard of the Council House, G. Salt Lake City.

In common with our fellow citizens throughout the loyal part of the Republic, East and West, we propose on Saturday next, March 4th, 1865 to celebrate the late signal victories of the arms of the Union, as well as the inauguration of President Lincoln.

I am informed that you have charge of the Council House and premises, but if such should not be the case, will you please lay this note of request before the proper authorities from whom an early reply is respectfully solicited.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
your obt. serv't,
CHAS. H. HEMPSTEAD.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T.,
March 1st, 1865.
CHAS. H. HEMPSTEAD, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I have the honor to reply to your favor of yesterday, addressed to the City Marshal, who is now absent, in which you request the privilege of erecting a stand on the Council House lot for the Orator of the Day, on the 4th instant, when it is proposed to unite with the other loyal portions of our great Republic in celebrating our late great victories and the second inauguration of our esteemed President.

Permit me to say, that the very limited space within that enclosure, renders the locality quite unsuitable for a gathering so extensive, but the City Hall Lot, much larger and better adapted, has been freely offered for the purpose, and, perhaps, more suitable still, as the weather is very rough, and snow and mud must inevitably be uncomfortable to all, the Tabernacle in this city has been placed at my disposal. The citizens here generally, will then be able to participate in the general rejoicing on the occasion, which I understand, is their intention to do.

I will call upon you to-day, and have the pleasure of accompanying you to see which of those places you will prefer to select, and have the honor to remain,

Your obedient servant,
ANDREW BURT,
Deputy Marshal, G. S. L. City.

As the day was fine, it was determined by the Committee, for the accommodation of the vast multitude, that the exercises should be held in the open air, and the stand was erected opposite the market.

The Committee of Arrangements selected S. S. Walker, Esq., to act as Grand Marshal, who chose the following named gentlemen to act as his aids: Rich'd A. Keyes, G. W. Carleton, Chas. King, Thos. Stainer, Samuel Sirraime and John Paul.

These gentlemen immediately proceeded to take the necessary steps for the formation of the line of march and the selection of the route of procession. It was decided to have a grand civic and military procession in which the citizens and U. S. forces at Camp Douglas unite.

In the mean time the authorities were not idle. The Mayor called the City Council together, and they determined, in a series of patriotic resolutions, to unite in the celebration. A committee of the Council was appointed to confer with the Grand Marshal. This committee consisted of John Sharp, Enoch Reese and Theodore McKean. Colonel Robert Burton was appointed Marshal. On learning of this action the following correspondence was had:

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T.,
March 3d, 1865.
Messrs. John Sharp, Enoch Reese and T. McKean, Esqs., Com. of the Common Council: Gentlemen,—The undersigned, Chairman of Committee of Exercise on the 4th inst., appointed at mass meeting of citizens, having selected the Hon. John Titus, Chief Justice of Utah to deliver an oration on the occasion of the proposed National celebration, begs leave to say that as the exercises will be brief, the Committee would be pleased to tender the stand and the occasion to some gentleman, to be selected by yourselves, to address the concourse at the close of the oration.

I have the honor to remain,
Gentlemen, very respectfully,
Your obt. servant,
CHAS. H. HEMPSTEAD,
Chairman Committee on Exercises.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, U. T.,
March 3d, 1865.
Hon. Chas. H. Hempstead, Chairman Committee on Exercises: Sir:—Your communication of to-day has been received. The Committee tender their thanks and accept the proposition, and beg leave to name Hon. Wm. H. Hooper to deliver the closing address.

Very respectfully,
JOHN SHARP,
Chairman Com. of Arrangements
It was arranged by the Grand Marshal that the Band escort and head of procession should form on Main street, march out of the city about a mile and meet the military from Camp—while the sub division, under Col. Burton, should form at the head of 1st East Temple street and fall into line as the procession passed along South Temple street.

The morning of Saturday, March 4th, came dark, cloudy and threatening, but soon the Sun shone forth in our city decked in holiday attire and brilliant with flags and streamers floating in the breeze. By 10 A. M., the streets were alive and all aglow. The procession formed on Main street, took up the Governor, Gen. Connor and Staff, Orator and Chaplain and marched to the rendezvous where the military awaited them. The junction being effected the column marched gaily forward amid cheers and shouts. At the appointed place the Mayor, Council, citizens, military, (dragoons, artillery and infantry) distinguished citizens in carriages and "all the world" on foot united with the main procession; and marched through the principal streets of the city to the stand erected on Main street in front of the market.

From our hasty notes taking while the column counter-marched, we can only lightly note some of the more salient points of this splendid demonstration.

First came the escort. Provost Guard, commanded by Capt. Kittidge, then the Grand Marshal and his effective aids, also galloped hither and thither directing and conducting the line of march.

Then followed Prof. Thomas' City Brass Band.

Governor Doty and Gen. Connor in a handsome carriage.

Orator of the Day and Chaplain.

Federal officers in sleighs. The vehicles and horses gaily decked with flags, ribbons and streamers.

Then followed the Overland Stage Line with eight splendid horses and coach trimmed with red, white and blue.

Next the Overland Mail Co. coach drawn by six dashing steeds arrayed in all the colors of the rainbow. The coach was handsomely trimmed with flags and banners, among the latter we marked the following inscription: "Overland Mail Co., faithful to the Government it serves."

"Thank God! for our Union victories."

"Devoted to the Union and the interest of a Free People."

"God bless Abraham Lincoln."

Another represented a Gallows beside an open grave, and underneath the words "The last Ditch."

Here we should not omit to mention the tremendous 7,000 freight wagon of Howard Livingston, Esq., drawn by ten stalwart mules, with silver bells, and covered with ribbons, while the wagon was wrapped in American flags. This wagon was tendered to and used by the City Band, while a similar one was freighted with a myriad of boys, who made the welkin ring with shouts and buzzes. To the enterprise and liberality of the same gentlemen the Y. M. Literary Association were indebted for their splendid turn-out, consisting of a large wagon, appropriately trimmed and drawn by a fine six mule team. In this latter were members of the Association, with their banner, flags, and the Emancipation Proclamation. These three wagons and teams were quite a feature in the procession. After these followed the sleighs, carriages, etc., of the Federal, City and County officers and private citizens, each vying with the other as to who should make the greatest display. The column was nearly a mile long, and the military from Camp Douglas, led by Col. George and staff, mounted, presented a soldierly and splendid appearance, and the two pieces of Artillery, in charge of Lieut. Honeyman, gave a martial air to the whole.

Another of the novel features was an immense sleigh filled with Miners from Bingham Canon, with such inscriptions as—

"Uncle Sam's right hand pocket—Bingham Canon."
"Gold, Silver and Copper united."

Give us the Pacific Rail-Road and we will pay the National debt in ten years, etc. etc. Our space precludes further details.

On Monday we gave a detailed account of the ceremonies at the stand and the grand wind up jollification at the City Hall. Thus ended a day long to be remembered in Utah.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

Philadelphia, March 3d.
A Washington special says: Richmond papers of the 2d contain a telegram from Fayetteville stating that no Federal force has advanced in that direction from Wilmington.

The Richmond Despatch says: Singleton has arrived at Richmond, and it says his mission is a commercial one, he proposing to exchange bacon for cotton. All the other papers intimate his visit is of a private character.

Congressman W. C. Rivers, of Virginia, has resigned his seat.

The Despatch says a Union cavalry force is moving down the valley toward Staunton.

Washington, March 3d.

The following is from the Richmond Whig of the 1st, from the south side express of yesterday. It states that the advance, which was threatened two or three days since, has been checked, if not defeated by superabundant means, and for the present may possibly be abandoned.

The public need not be surprised to hear of the commencement of a battle at any moment. The enemy have not withdrawn any portion of his forces; he has moved to his left, but holds them in readiness for advancing at the earliest practicable moment. It is believed the enemy intends a heavy flank movement some distance further down than the scene of his late operations.

A special to the Columbia Enquirer, dated Marianna, Florida, Feb. 26th, says: Dickenson captured 85 prisoners, including one Colonel, three Captains, and ten wagons, sixty horses, one ambulance, arms, etc. The enemy lost five killed, including an Adjutant, and four wounded, including their Colonel. Not one of Dickenson's company was lost.

Gen. B. J. Hill having been authorized to raise a brigade of mounted men in North Alabama, will make his headquarters alternately at Rome, Georgia, and Gadsden, Alabama. Beauregard has authorized Hill to proclaim amnesty to all men and property absent from their commands who may join his brigade in Mill Point View.

Everything is quiet in the trans-Mississippi region. The rivers are higher now than they have been for years. No apprehension is felt of the land invasion by the enemy.

Blockade running between Galveston and the West Indies, is carried on successfully, and perhaps rivaling in this respect the ports of Wilmington and Charleston. Quite a number of steamers have run in and out of Galveston during the past fortnight. Government stores in Texas and at Shreveport are full of clothing and other necessities.

An expedition is fitting out at New Orleans, and it is believed, intended for Galveston, and not Mobile.

The army of the trans-Mississippi is in excellent spirits and condition. The troops are well supplied with clothing, food and munitions of war.

The message of Governor Allen, of Louisiana, argues the placing of 200,000 negroes in the army as pioneers, wagoners, etc., and the message meets universal approbation in Louisiana.

A correspondent of the Montgomery Appeal, at Grenada, Miss., says: Affairs on the border are in a tolerable condition. The country is filled with bands of jayhawkers and robbers, principally deserters, whose deeds rival the famous days of Dick Turpin, such a reign of terror being inaugurated that travel is almost completely broken up in some portions of the country. Coupled with these are large numbers of soldiers returning to their homes on furlough, who are vowing vengeance on speculators in northern counties, who have refused to take Confederate money for corn and other necessities of life from their families. Unless something is speedily done by those in authority, we may look for a desperate state of affairs here during the present month.

Halifax, March 3d.

The Canada, from Liverpool 18th and Queenstown 19th, has arrived. In the House of Commons on the 17th, Layard, in response to Watkins, bore testimony to the ability with which Lord Lyons had discharged his duties at Washington, and in none of the many thousand cases had he failed to obtain the highest approval of government. Watkins complained that government allowed the reciprocity treaty to be set aside without an attempt to avert it by negotiation.

The Index says 715 American ships have been transferred to British registry since the commencement of the war.

A demonstration in support of the Freemans Aid Society took place at Exeter Hall, London, on the 15th.

The weekly returns of the bank of France show an increase of over 13,000,000 francs in cash.

A Turin telegram says that great uneasiness prevailed there. The eruption of Vesuvius was increasing; no damage had occurred.

Washington, March 3d.

Both Houses passed the bill to establish a home for disabled soldiers. It incorporates Lieut. Gen. Grant and 99 others. The capital is to consist of a million dollars, made up from the military fund and from pay and donations. There is to be no expense to the government.

Newbern, N. C., Feb. 25th.

Rebel deserters report that Lee has ordered Goldsboro and Kingston to be fortified, which order is now being carried into effect. Goldsboro, he says, must be held at all hazards, and a large force is now at work night and day throwing up fortifications.

Cairo, March 3d.

The Jackson, Miss., papers of the 28th contain an address from the rebel Gen. Forest to his troops, recounting the results of his operations during the past year. He says they have fought fifty battles, killed and captured sixteen thousand of the enemy, captured two thousand horses and mules, sixty-seven pieces of artillery, four gunboats, four hundred wagons, fifty ambulances, one hundred and five thousand stand of arms, forty block-houses, destroyed thirty-six railroad bridges, two hundred miles of railroad, six locomotives, one hundred cars and fifteen million dollars worth of property. In accomplishing this he admits they were occasionally sustained by other troops, but says their regular number never exceeded five thousand, two thousand of whom have been killed and wounded, two thousand taken prisoners, and tells them to prepare for renewed action—warns them against being allured by the siren song of peace, for there can be no peace save upon their separate independent nationality.

Imboden is in command of all the rebel military forces in Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi. There is great scarcity of breadstuffs said to exist in Northern Mississippi.

A portion of Roddy's division is breaking up distilleries in Alabama, so that the grain may be procured by suffering families of soldiers. Whisky is regarded a worse enemy than Yankees.

Gen. Wirt Adams has ordered all the gins and cotton on the Big Black river removed immediately.

New Orleans, Feb. 23d.

It is reported that Gen. Canby will leave for Mobile to day, he is master of the situation. Good reports may be soon expected from him and the fleet there, under Commodore Palmer, is hard at work.

Washington, March 3d.

The House bill passed to facilitate communication with New Mexico, Arizona and Colorado, by giving any one establishing artesian wells of flowing water a section of land where the well is located.

Washington, March 2d.

The Inaugural address will be a brief one, it will not exceed a column as stated. Senate bill authorized the issue of bonds necessary for the building of a hundred miles Pacific R. Road in advance of the completed Line from Sacramento.

New York, March 3d.

The Commercial Advertiser estimates the number of guns captured from the rebels since the first as great as 1,801, this does not include guns captured or destroyed on the Alabama, Florida, Tennessee or on other rebel crafts, during the same time we have not lost 35 cannon.

The Commercial says this exceeds the capture made by Napoleon during all the Russian or Austrian campaign.

The Herald's army of the Potomac special says: No prisoners have been delivered to us by the rebels for several days. Judge Ould says high water has prevented his doing so; this has not lessened his ability to receive large numbers of their men and it is thought will be an excuse for gaining unfair advantage in numbers. No more will be delivered by us until another installment has been made by them.

MR. J. A. PACKARD, of Galena, Illinois, raised one hundred and sixty-five bales of cotton last year, on a plantation near Vicksburg. It has been ginned, baled and sent to New York, which, at present prices, is worth $75,000. His net profit is $40,000.

Local Matters.

MESSRS. LYNE AND PAUNCEFORT, the eminent actors, will give a dramatic entertainment at the 13th Ward Assembly Room, on Wednesday evening next. The theater going public will be afforded a rare treat on this occasion, by seeing the two most prominent actors of the S. L. City Stage. Let everybody go.

We understand that Sholes, of the United States Saloon, invited the Camp Band to taste his "drinkables" on Saturday last. Mr. Sholes knows how to keep a saloon, and his wines and liquors are spoken well of by those who indulge.

GRAY of the S. L. City News Depot "spread himself" with fire-works on Saturday night, in honor of the "Father of his Country."

The Union Varieties have commenced their show again. Patronize them, they are well worthy of it.

THE REVENUE IN THE STATE OF NEVADA.—The Federal Tax Collector of Nevada says that the receipts of taxes are greatly on the increase in that State, amounting to some $30,000 per month, $12,000 of which is collected on bullion alone. During the last six months, $107,000 has been collected, it being more than has been collected previously since the office has been opened.

A VERY MEAN THIEF.—The most despicable affair of which we ever heard, took place at San Francisco on the night of February 10th. An old negro woman known as Aunt Jordon, while asleep with her mouth open, had the false teeth with the golden plate stolen therefrom. They were found by the police after a search, spouted at a pawn-broker's shop.

MILITARY CHANGE.—Gen. Mason has been appointed to the command of the new division of the Department of the Pacific, created by the annexation of Arizona. His new field of operations is to be known as the Department of Arizona.

ENGLISH BENEVOLENCE.—Sidney Smith defines English benevolence to be a "strong impulse on the part of A., when he sees B, in distress to compel C, to help him." This is what the cotton-lords of Lancashire are doing now.

DURING the past year the enormous sum of twenty-eight millions five hundred and twenty-two thousand dollars was lost by fires in the loyal States.

RIGHT NAME.—The Naval Department of Jeff Davis' Confederacy, is now styled the "Bureau of Piracy."
